

GHMPO ON THE MOVE!

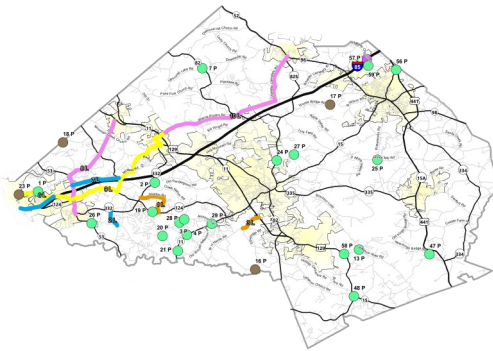

Welcome to the third issue of our quarterly newsletter! GHMPO On The Move is intended to keep citizens, committee members, and other interested parties informed of everything that is happening at GHMPO between the quarterly committee meetings as well as provide easy access to links of full documents, surveys, and other news related items.

Gainesville-Hall Regional Transportation Plan: 2020 Update

The federally-required update of our Regional Transportation Plan is ongoing. On September 17, 2019, the GHMPO Policy Committee approved the draft project lists that utilize state and federal funds as well as project lists that utilize other funding sources such as House Bill 170 funds. These project lists are available here. See the project website for more details and updates.

Citizens review draft project lists at the Blackshear Place Library Open House on August 19, 2019

Jackson County Transportation Plan & Upcoming Transit Plan

The Jackson County Transportation Plan, a joint effort between GHMPO and Jackson County, is now complete. The Plan was adopted by the Jackson County Board of Commissioners on July 15, 2019 and by the GHMPO Policy Committee on September 17, 2019. The plan is available in full here.

Beginning in late October 2019, GHMPO and Jackson County will begin work on the Jackson County Transit Study. This study is designed to look at a variety of transit options for Jackson County moving forward with anticipated changes in funding following the 2020 US Census.

State Route 365/Jesse Jewell Parkway Traffic Impact Study

The City of Gainesville and GHMPO have undertaken a State Route 365/Jesse Jewell Parkway Traffic Impact Study to assess the impact of recent development along with the new Inland Port which will be located in the Gateway Industrial Centre. This study is ongoing and is expected to be completed by June 2020.
